傳記文學 (Zhuanji Wenxue)

The essential biographical reference source for important figures in the Republic of China is the Biography Literature Magazine, now available online from the first issue in 1962 to date, in full image and full-text. The journal is known for its first-person accounts by famous people, articles by those who crossed paths with historical figures, and eyewitness reports of significant events.

Biography Literature was established in 1962 by Liu Shou Tong, who wanted to preserve the history of the Republic of China by commemorating the nation's people of distinction. Liu encouraged elder contemporary figures to provide their own accounts of events in the ROC's development. Liu referred to this as "saving the history that resides in the memories of living figures," and the journal became a resource for compelling points-of-view, offering insight into history.

As a resource of historical materials, the database has more than 20,000 articles, with new content added continuously: autobiographies, biographies, diaries, handwritten letters, oral history, and more. Learn about the political and military leaders, prominent officials, scholars, celebrities, heads of secret societies, spies, renowned actors, and common people that made the Republic of China what it is today.
