Zhuanji Wenxue Digital Archive

傳記文學

United Digital Publications (formerly known as Greatman Knowledge Management Group) of Taiwan has been producing databases since 1997. Current offerings address the classics of Chinese culture, as well as resources specific to Taiwanese culture and history.

The essential biographical reference source for important figures in the Republic of China is Zhuanji Wenxue (Biography Literature Magazine), now available online from the first issue in 1962 to date, in full image and full-text.

Learn about the political and military leaders, prominent officials, scholars, celebrities, heads of secret societies, spies, renowned actors, and common people that made the Republic of China (ROC) what it is today.

Zhuanji Wenxue was established in 1962 by Liu Shou Tong, who wanted to preserve the history of the ROC by commemorating the nation's people of distinction. Liu encouraged elder contemporary figures to provide their own accounts of events in the ROC's development. Liu referred to this as "saving the history that resides in the memories of living figures."

Zhuanji Wenxue* quickly became a celebrated resource for compelling points-of-view, with insight into history.

As an online database, the Zhuanji Wenxue Digital Archive is a treasure trove of historical materials on modern China. With a searchable archive of more than 20,000 articles, new content is added continuously: autobiographies, biographies, diaries, handwritten letters, oral history, and more.

All issues published since 1962 are included the database, making this an essential resource for researchers of Chinese/East Asian history, culture, literature, or other social science/humanities fields.
