Universal Database of Russian Islamic Studies

More than 10% of Russia's population is Muslim. This makes Islam the second most widely professed religion in Russia.

Online access is now available to this large and influential community's most important publications through the Universal Database (UDB) of Russian Islamic Studies.

This database of full-image pdf files, with searchable text, is a collection of journals and newspapers published in Moscow, Nizhnii Novgorod and Makhachkala. This unique collection covers activities of Islamic organizations in Russia and abroad, political and economic developments in the Muslim regions of Russia, the state of Islamic education in Russia, and more.

Some titles are available exclusively from East View including archives as far back as 2004. All content is legally secured by our long-term and established contracts with the publishers and suppliers of source material.

The UDB of Russian Islamic Studies is:

- ◆ Cutting Edge—rare, mostly unavailable in print, with access to archives
- ◆ User Friendly—includes Cyrillic transliteration in a virtual keyboard, browse capability and easy navigation
- ◆ Geared for Libraries, with content updates, permanent URLs, usage reports, perpetual access and direct authentication for an unlimited number of patrons
