*From the collection:
Euromaidan Protests, 2013-2014*

Uncommon Information Extraordinary Places

CHERNOBYL NEWSPAPERS (1979-1990)

Three previously unavailable local newspapers – Tribuna Energetika, Prapor peremogi, and Tribuna pratsi – published in towns in and near the exclusion zone. Ideal resources for the study of the social background surrounding the Chernobyl disaster.

ДЕМОКРАТИЧНА УКРАЇНА (1992-2020)

(Демократична Україна, Democratic Ukraine)

Originally published in Russian, this newspaper was renamed in 1991 and started publishing in Ukrainian. The editorial policies encourage a new kind of journalism valuing democratic ideals.

DONETSK AND LUHANSK NEWSPAPERS (2013-2018)

This database of ten rare newspapers from the self-proclaimed Donetsk and Luhansk republics of Ukraine covers the period of military hostilities between the unrecognized states and the government of Ukraine. Sources primarily in Russian.

ГОЛОС УКРАЇНИ (FROM 1991)

(Голос України, Voice of Ukraine)

Covers everyday activities in Parliament and work done by various parliamentary committees. Includes news related to the latest developments in politics, economics, the international and social scene, sports, and the arts.

НАРОДНА АРМІЯ (1991-2018)

(Народна армія, People's Army)

The successor to the Soviet military publication of the Ukrainian SSR, Leninskoe znamia, this publication covered the creation and reform of the Armed Forces of Ukraine. Correspondents also covered the activities of Ukrainian peacekeepers in UN operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina and the activities of the Ukrainian-Polish battalion in Kosovo.

НАРОДНА ГАЗЕТА (1990-2009)

(Народна газета, People's Newspaper)

The continuation of the short-lived Rukh (1989-1990), with the motto "For the unity of national-democratic forces." This pro-independence, anti-communist newspaper provided detailed coverage of the lead-up to the first democratic elections held in the Ukrainian SSR. It ceased due to bankruptcy in 2009. Published in Kyiv, in the Ukrainian language.

НЕЗАВИСИМОСТ' (1991-2002)

(Независимость, Independence)

This was the Russian-language successor publication to Komsomolskoe znamya (initially called Stalinskoe plemya [Stalin's Tribe]), with a long history as a Soviet publication.

ПРАВДА УКРАЇНИ (1938-2014)

(Правда України, Ukraine Truth)

The newspaper of record from 1938, Pravda Ukrainy covered party opinions on politics, culture, economics and other issues, until the August coup of 1991. Afterwards, it embraced democratic principles and independent journalism, until it ceased in 2014.

ЗА ВІЛЬНУ УКРАЇНУ (1990-2006)

(За вільну Україну, For a Free Ukraine)

Founded in July 1990 in L'viv by the Regional Council of Workers' Deputies with the stated purpose of uniting national-patriotic forces and Ukrainian ideals. Its circulation peaked at nearly one half million, and it was distributed in Ukraine, Poland, Germany, France, Belgium, the US, Canada, Brazil, and Australia.

East View's historical research collections come from many different sources: previously classified military documents, materials from the State Archives of the Kyiv Oblast, and more. All collections are available online, in full-image, text-searchable files, providing researchers with convenient access to rare, primary source materials. Read more: eastview.com/research-collections

UKRAINIAN STUDIES

East View's Ukrainian Studies research collections are primary source documents covering uprisings against the Russian Empire, the Prosvita Society (a pro-Ukrainian cultural organization), the Stolypin assassination, the short-lived government and secret police of Hetman Skoropadsky, and Ukraine under Nazi occupation, including guerilla activities during Nazi occupation.

UKRAINE BETWEEN THE WARS

Primarily concentrated between the years 1912 and 1929, the items in this collection illuminate the concerns of intellectuals and politicians during Ukrainians' early attempts at statehood and initial experience of Sovietization. Many books, especially those depicting artwork, are richly illustrated in full color. Most of the materials were published in Ukraine, Russia and the Soviet Union, but a handful of books were printed in important centers of Ukrainian émigré life such as Canada, Germany, France, the U.K., and the U.S.

NEW CONTENT ADDED! THE CHERNOBYL COLLECTION. DOCUMENTS AND MAPS

Recently declassified documents makes fresh research into the causes and the consequences of the Chernobyl disaster not only possible but urgent, allowing researchers, policymakers, environmentalists, and nuclear industry insiders unprecedented insight into the Ukrainian and Soviet decision-making process. The collection was recently transferred to the new user-friendly interface, allowing researchers to use faceted filters to browse by Document Source, Document Type, Personalities, and Year. The collection was updated with more than 70 high-resolution maps of the area using i3F technology for a detailed view of location.

JUDAICA DIGITAL COLLECTIONS

East View produces a variety of valuable collections for researchers and graduate level students in Judaic studies. Spanning the period from the Russian Empire in 1857 to the Soviet era in 1929, the collections include documentation from important historical events, such as Kyiv's Bloody October of 1905 and the Beilis Case. Topics covered include: emigration from Ukraine both before and during the Soviet era; anti-Semitic groups, ethnic tension, and resulting pogroms; Jewish societies and education programs; and more.

Social Movements, Elections, Ephemera

East View's Social Movements, Elections, Ephemera series offers the most comprehensive collection of election-related material to date from Ukraine and other the countries of the former USSR, preserved for easy digital access.

Representing a vast repository of primary source material from both presidential and parliamentary elections, as well as notable social movements, this series embodies a unique "first stop" for policy analysts and observers of electoral politics in the region. Resources in the series include party programs, propaganda materials, special newspaper editions, handbills, literature produced by political parties or candidates, and more. Ukrainian collections currently offered are below. Read more: eastview.com/elections

GLOBAL CENSUS ARCHIVE

East View presents the Global Census Archive® (GCA), an innovative program to collect official data and publications issued by the national census authorities of more than 175 countries, from the early 19th century to the present day. For Ukraine, GCA offers a robust collection of census data, including:

- Soviet Census Data (includes Ukraine data): Available years include 1926, 1937, 1939, 1959, 1970, 1979, 1989
- Ukraine 2001 Census
- Crimea Regional (rayon-level) 2001 Census
- Crimea Demography and Economy 2009

GCA contains all available primary source and official census publications associated with a given census. Users can browse historical publications as full-image, full-text e-books, download tabular data in Excel format (for born-digital publications), and download GIS data (e.g., shape files of administrative boundaries) – all from a unified discovery interface. Read more: eastview.com/gca

East View On Demand

Today's students and faculty increasingly expect access to all the library's resources online at all hours of the day. It's in the DNA of libraries to provide their researchers with the best and most extensive access to information, but the nature of print or microform collections limits access to researchers unable to visit the library during open hours.

Librarians can now devote more time and energy to what they do best – preserving and promoting the intellectual output of their institution – with East View's service solutions, including digitization, preservation, conversion, hosting, and other value-added services.

Digitizing these unique collections helps libraries connect those resources with their researchers and researchers to your resources. Any content owned by the customer institution can be converted into a more accessible online resource through our comprehensive conversion service, which includes digitization and hosting.

Our extensive background in digitization's toughest terrain – converting primary source materials OCR'd in non-Roman and Roman scripts into full-image scans with searchable full text – makes East View the ideal partner to help libraries define metadata character sets and special collections for area studies.

East View Press is the journal and book publishing division of East View Information Services. East View Press selectively identifies, reformats, translates and publishes authoritative source materials concerning the geographic area of Russia, the post-Soviet space, and China on topics of international and public policy questions. East View Press adds special value (usually by English translation) to make them available to a global audience. More titles may be found at: eastviewpress.com

BROTHERS ARMED: MILITARY ASPECTS OF THE CRISIS IN UKRAINE (SECOND EDITION)

Provides military context for and unprecedented detail about the start of the conflict between Russia and Ukraine in February 2014, which led to the annexation of Crimea and outbreak of conflict in eastern Ukraine. This compendium of chapters written by specialists in the field brings greater balance and detail, more candor and increased objectivity to a subject fraught with confusion, misunderstanding, and historical animosities.

TERRAIN ANALYSIS OF UKRAINE

This unique publication delivers a descriptive and visual geographic knowledge base of Ukraine's population, roads, topography and soils, hydrology, vegetation, and climate. Where possible, East View has updated the reports with additional data from authoritative sources. Published in English for the first time, and supplemented with hundreds of full-color topographic and soil maps, this publication makes an abundance of detailed local geographic data accessible to a global audience.

LOCAL AND INDEPENDENT UKRAINIAN NEWSPAPERS: (1991-2002)

The newest community-driven project with the Center for Research Libraries is the Local and Independent Ukrainian Newspapers collection. This community-supported collection presents over 900 titles, offering scholars a regionally diverse archive preserving the first decade of post-Soviet press across Ukraine. The collection is available as Open Access to scholars at affiliated institutions of the Center for Research Libraries.

The collection includes local newspapers of record from over 340 cities and towns across Ukraine. All told, it features dozens of publications from each of the 25 provincial-level units of Ukraine, including Crimea. The majority of titles are in Ukrainian (about 80%) and in Russian (about 15%), with other languages represented, including Azeri, English, German, Hebrew, Polish, Crimean Tatar, and more.

Featuring content not found in any existing East View digital archive or database, the Local and Independent Ukrainian Newspapers collection provides researchers with a snapshot of Ukraine at a pivotal moment in its history, with hyper local coverage bringing to light regional and ethnic interests and concerns.

COMING SOON! SOVIET-ERA UKRAINIAN NEWSPAPERS

This archive will offer broad coverage of Ukraine during its history as part of the USSR, providing a complement to East View's Ukrainian Publications (UDB-UKR) database and the titles in the Local and Independent Ukrainian Newspapers collection, which covers the early post-Soviet years. The collection is available as Open Access to scholars at affiliated institutions of the Center for Research Libraries.
