OVERVIEW AND BACKGROUND

The Ninth National Census of Population and Housing in the Dominican Republic was carried out from December 1 to 7, 2010. The census registered 9,445,281 inhabitants. It was the first census to provide a phone line by which the population could request a visit from an enumerator. Personnel consisted of 39,000 enumerators reporting to 10,300 supervisors, directed by 2,700 Polígono managers, 352 municipal managers, and 48 provincial managers. Notable improvements to census cartography following international standards allowed for a fully digital cartographic foundation.
