OVERVIEW AND BACKGROUND

The Seventh Population and Third Housing Census in Panama was carried out May 10th, 1970. The census expanded on the data collected compared to previous censuses, including: the population aged over 21 in each populated place, the illiterate population over age 10, the population employed in agriculture, the unemployed population, the economically active population, and the school-attending and non-school-attending population between seven and 15 years of age. 1,428,082 inhabitants were enumerated.
